	 A. The Court grants a judgment of: 1. Divorce: The marriage between the parties is dissolved and the parties are divorced.
	The parties are informed by the court that under sec. 765.03(2) Wis. Stats.:
Check 1 or 2.	It is unlawful for any person who is or has been a party to an action of divorce in any court in this state, or elsewhere, to marry again until six months after judgment of divorce is granted, and the marriage of any such person solemnized before the expiration of six months from the date of the granting of judgment of divorce shall be void.
	2. Legal Separation: The marital relationship is broken and the parties are granted a judgment of legal separation.
	The parties are informed by the court that under sec. 767.09 Wis. Stats.:
	In case of reconciliation at any time, the parties may apply for a revocation of the judgment of legal separation. And, by stipulation of both parties, or upon motion of either party not earlier than one year after entry of a decree of legal separation, the court shall convert the decree to a decree of divorce.

B. Marital Settlement Agreement/Proposed Marital Settlement The 1.
 C. Lis Pendens Any Lis Pendens filed in this action is released. D. Legal Name Restoration 1. Neither party requests the use of a former legal surname.
2. The Wife requests the use of a former legal surname of: 3. The Husband requests the use of a former legal surname of: Note: If this is an action for legal separation, the court cannot allow a spouse to resume a former legal surname unless and until the judgment is converted to a divorce.
 Maintenance Pursuant to sec. 767.265 Wis. Stats., this judgment constitutes an immediate assignment of all commissions, earnings, salaries, wages, pension benefits, benefits under Chapter 102 or 108, and other money due or to be due in the future, to the WI SCTF. The assignment shall be for an amount sufficient to ensure payment under this judgment, so long as the addition of the amount toward arrears does not leave the party at an income below the poverty line established under 42 USC 9902(2). Pursuant to sec. 767.29(1)(a) Wis. Stats., all payments for maintenance ordered shall note the case number and the names of the parties on the face of the check, should be made payable to WI SCTF, and sent to:

The WI SCTF will transmit the payments to the proper persons entitled to them.

Box 74400

Wisconsin Support Collections Trust Fund

Milwaukee, WI 53284-0400

Failure of an employer to pay the proper amount shall not be a defense for failure to pay the proper amount. If an employer fails to take out the correct amount for maintenance, the party paying is responsible for paying the full and correct amount directly to WI SCTF.

Pursuant to sec. 767.29(1)(d) Wis. Stats., the party making payment for maintenance is responsible for payment of the annual receiving and disbursing fee to WI SCTF.

- 3. If maintenance is not denied, both parties shall notify, in writing, the other party and the Clerk of Court and the Child Support Agency of the county in which this action is filed, within 10 business days, of any change of employer and employer's address.
- 4. Pursuant to sec. 767.265 Wis. Stats., a withholding assignment or order under this section has priority over any other assignment, garnishment, or similar legal process under Wisconsin law. The employer shall not withhold more of the employee's disposable income than allowed pursuant to the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act unless the employee agrees to have the full amount withheld. No employer may use an assignment under this section to deny employment, or to discharge or take disciplinary action against an employee.

F. Court Ordered Fees

All payments of attorney fees shall be paid directly to the attorney or to the agency providing services which may enforce the order in its name.

G. Restraining Order

Both parties are restrained from interfering with the personal liberty of the other.

H. Non-Compliance

Disobedience of the court orders is punishable under ch. 785 Wis. Stats. by commitment to the county jail until the judgment is complied with and the costs and expense of the proceedings are paid or until the party committed is otherwise discharged, according to law.

I. Entry of Judgment

The Clerk of Court's office, per sec. 806.06(1)(2) Wis. Stats., shall enter this judgment by affixing a file stamp that is dated.
